

Payne® furnaces are a quality option when value is most important.

Many of your customers are probably worried about money these days. But you can still help them to be warm. When spending and temperatures are down, offer to heat them up with a Payne furnace. Here are just a few reasons you and your customers will love Payne furnaces:

- Value! Payne equipment is a solid-quality option for an affordable price.
- The Payne 10-year parts limited warranty means peace of mind for you and your customers.
- Payne equipment is a favorite over-the-counter brand. Anyone can offer it.
- Smooth operation – customers love quiet furnaces.
- Payne furnaces are easy to find at your Totaline sales center – your one-stop shop for all things HVAC/R.
